

Directive
Of the Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration,
Prague University of Economics and Business
No. 03/2026

On the Conditions for Granting Scholarships to Doctoral Students of the Faculty in the Academic Year 2026/27

Article 1

Introductory Provisions

1. This Directive, in accordance with the Scholarship Regulations of the Prague University of Economics and Business, specifies and supplements Articles 7 and 7a of the Scholarship Regulations of the Prague University of Economics and Business (hereinafter referred to as the “Scholarship Regulations”) in the area of doctoral scholarships for students in full-time doctoral study programs conducted at the Faculty of Business Administration (hereinafter referred to as “FBA”) in the academic year 2026/27.
2. For the purposes of this Directive, a doctoral scholarship is understood to be a scholarship provided under the Scholarship Regulations to students in full-time doctoral study programs.

Article 2

Conditions Regimes

The amount of the scholarship and the conditions for its granting, reduction, and withdrawal are distinctly defined for:

- a) students enrolled in the full-time program starting in the academic year 2025/2026 or later and students whose request to adopt the conditions of the Study and Examination Regulations approved by the Academic Senate of the Prague University of Economics and Business on June 16, 2025, has been approved (hereinafter referred to as the “New Conditions for Doctoral Scholarship”), and
- b) other students in full-time doctoral studies (hereinafter referred to as the “Old Conditions for Doctoral Scholarship”).

Article 3

New Conditions for Doctoral Scholarship

1. The amount of the doctoral scholarship for the academic year 2026/27 is CZK 30,000 per month.
2. The doctoral scholarship is paid monthly.
3. For students who begin their studies in the summer semester of the academic year 2026/27, the first payment is due for the month of March 2027.
4. Reduction or withdrawal of the doctoral scholarship is governed by Article 7a of the Scholarship Regulations.

Article 4

Old Conditions for Doctoral Scholarship

1. Students to whom the Old Conditions for Doctoral Scholarship apply are granted a regular monthly scholarship of CZK 20,000, provided that they have fully met the obligations of the previous year laid down in the applicable Dean’s Directive and specified in their individual study plan.
2. Upon the first conditional enrolment, the scholarship is reduced to CZK 7,500 per month for the following six months (this period does not include any interruption of studies). Upon the second conditional enrolment, which may occur at any time during the study, the scholarship is reduced to CZK 1,000 per month, again for the following six months.
3. A reduction of the scholarship based on the supervisor’s proposal is valid until the end of the relevant semester.

Article 5

Extraordinary Scholarship

1. An extraordinary scholarship may be granted to students:
 - a) for participation in the scientific research and teaching activities of the Faculty or the Prague University of Economics and Business, or for outstanding scientific, research, or other creative achievements;
 - b) to cover extraordinary expenses related to tasks assigned in the interest of the Faculty or the Prague University of Economics and Business, professional internships, or scientific research activities;
 - c) in cases of extraordinarily difficult social situations.
2. The Dean decides to grant an extraordinary scholarship based on a proposal from a member of the Dean's Board.

Article 6

Final Provisions

1. Upon the effective date of this Directive, Directive No. 04/2025 of the Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration on the Conditions for Granting Scholarships to Doctoral Students of the Faculty in the Academic Year 2025/26, dated October 20, 2025, is repealed.
2. This Directive becomes effective on September 29, 2026, and applies for the first time to scholarships for the month of November 2026.

Issued in Prague on September 29, 2026

Prof. Ing. Jiří Hnilica, Ph.D.
Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration